

HOME CARE & HOSPICE MONTH

NAHC helps fight the opioid epidemic through safe disposal of hospice painkilling medicine.

The National Association for Home Care & Hospice (NAHC) is the largest and most-respected trade association representing the nation's home care and hospice organizations, as well as the interests of the chronically ill, disabled, and dying Americans and the caregivers who provide them with in-home health care and hospice.

